What Makes Us Different

MFU, a registered vendor for the federal government, strives to ensure workshop presentations adhere to the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) guidelines.

- Workers planning to retire within the next five or more years, and retired employees, will benefit by gaining a holistic understanding of their retirement benefits to help them make informed decisions and achieve their financial goals in retirement.
- We assist agency HR specialists who administer federal benefits with comprehensive training in the FERS/CSRS retirement systems and related benefits including Social Security and Medicare.
- From insurance and financial consultants, to attorneys and tax experts, MFU trains and certifies qualified professionals to build a nationwide network of ethical representatives highly knowledgeable in all federal retirement benefits.
